mealtime prayer

As we look to you, we are blessed with food. When you send your Spirit, we are renewed. All praise to God! Amen.

ACTS 2:17 (NCV)

blessing

May God pour out his Spirit upon you, so that you live boldly as his child and do great things in his name. Amen.

FOURKEYS

for practising faith

Discuss in your household or small group:

- Wind and fire are two of the most powerful forces of nature. What are some of the destructive effects of wind and fire? Positive effects?
- At Pentecost the first Christians received the Holy Spirit with signs of wind and fire (Acts 2:1-4). How is the Spirit like wind and fire?
- How, when and where have you received the Holy Spirit? What does the gift of the Holy Spirit mean to you?

Cut out little doves from a piece of card and on each write one of the following fruits of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:23): love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Place the doves in a nice dish and before each meal ask a household member to draw one out. Say together these words:

Spirit of ...(fruit)..., come and produce your fruit in us. Amen.

At the end of the week use the doves to make a mobile to hang over your meal table during the coming weeks.

In Acts 2 we read that there were people from "every nation under heaven" in the city of Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost, and that they each heard the first Christians speaking in their native languages. Invite a Christian of a different cultural background or nationality into your home. Use this opportunity to learn about different Christian practices that may have been part of their background.

Take time out for a fun Pentecost-related household activity this week that makes use of the wind e.g. kite-flying or bubble blowing. You could also decorate your home with red balloons and red candles this week as a reminder of the "blowing" and "burning" of God's Spirit in your lives.

From Martin Luther's Small Catechism:

Explanation to the Third Article of the Apostles' Creed:

I believe that I cannot by my own understanding or effort believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to him. But the Holy Spirit has called me through the Gospel, enlightened me with his gifts, and sanctified and kept me in true faith. In the same way he calls, gathers, enlightens and sanctifies the whole Christian church on earth, and keeps in united with Jesus Christ in the one true faith. In this Christian church day after day he fully forgives my sins and the sins of all believers. On the last day he will raise me and all the dead, and give me and all believers in Christ eternal life. This is most certainly true.
