Monday	Colossians 2:6-15	Overflowing with thankfulness
Tuesday	Deuteronomy 8:10-18	Remember the Lord your God
Wednesday	1 Samuel 2:1-10	Hannah's prayer of thanksgiving
Thursday	1 Chronicles 16:1,7-36	King David gives thanks
Friday	Psalms 100	Enter his gates with thanksgiving
Saturday	Psalms 136	Give thanks to the Lord
Sunday	Luke 18:1-8	Parable of the persistent widow talk about how the Bible passage relates to your highs and lows or discuss some of the ideas in FOURKEYS devotions.

pray for your highs and lows, for your family, and for the world.

bless one another using the following blessing or make up your own.

mealt ime prayer

God of grace, for food make us thankful, for friends make us joyful, and for your service make us faithful. Amen.

verse for the week

If you really want to become wise, you must begin by having respect for the Lord. All those who follow his rules have good understanding.

PSALM 111:10 (NIRV)

ble ssing

May God show you his kindness and mercy and fill your heart with thanks. Amen.

PSALM 111:4 & LUKE 17:15

FOURKEYS

for practising faith

Discuss in your household or small group:

- What is something for which you are thankful? Why?
- Do you think of yourself as a thankful person? How do you show thanks to others?
- Why can we be thankful to Jesus? How can we show him thanks?

When Jesus healed ten lepers, only one returned to give him thanks (Luke 17:11-19). As God's people, we are called to count our blessings each day and give thanks to God. Think together about people, events and experiences for which you can and should give thanks. Use this acrostic of the word THANKS to guide you.

Thank God for ... A Thing provided; A Help received; Another's company; an enjoyable moment; a Kindness received; a Surprise enjoyed.

Finish your time of sharing by giving thanks in prayer.

Only one of the ten lepers healed returned to thank Jesus. There are many people who serve us in various ways in our communities – in schools, churches, community organisations, service industries – who receive little thanks for what they do. Prepare a thank you card or gift (e.g. a plate of biscuits) to give to someone who regularly serves your household in some way (e.g. a postal delivery person, a policeman, a school teacher). Give thanks to God for them in your prayers this week.

Make time this week in your household to say thanks to one another. Focus on each person in turn. Invite household members to thank them for positive things they have said and done, and for the ways in which they contribute positively to your home life.

ParentWord - Teaching Thankfulness

Thankfulness is an attitude, an attribute, even a worldview that flows from faith. A truly grateful person recognizes and appreciates what they have as coming from God, rather than complaining about what they do not have. But thankfulness isn't automatic: it must be learnt, encouraged and cultivated. Begin by modeling thankfulness yourself: make a point of thanking your own children and let them see you expressing thanks to others. Be conscious to point out to them things for which they can and should give thanks. Where appropriate, have fun helping them preparing thank you messages or gifts. Teach them that giving thanks is both valuable and enjoyable!
